Editorial

The Annual for 1901

It is very desirable that the Annual for the year 1901 should have a correct list of all the ministers in the Brethren church. Please examine the ministerial list as it appears in the Annual of this year, and if your name and address do not appear correctly kindly inform us at once so that the correction can be made. Do not delay this matter and then complain because your address is not correctly given. Examine the list and note (1) whether your name is there at all, and (2) if so whether the correct address is given. This is a matter of importance and should not be neglected. Please remember that if corrections in the list are to be made you must make them. Unless we hear from you to the contrary your name and address will appear just as it is now.

Church Directory

It is our purpose as soon as possible to publish in the BRETHREN EVANGELIST a complete Church Directory for the convenience of our readers. The Directory will also be published in the Annual. The Directory is to contain, (1) the names and addresses of the officers of the National Mission Board. (2) The names and addresses of the officers of the Brethren Publication Board. (3) The names and addresses of the officers of the National S. S. C. E. (4) The name and address of the secretary of every State Mission Board. (5) The name and address of the moderator and the secretary of every State or District Conference in the brotherhood. (6) The name and address of the president and secretary of the Ministerial Association. (7) The name and address of the president and secretary of the Brethren Foreign Missionary Society. (8) The names and addresses of our missionaries in Chicago and Washington, and also of our city preachers, Philadelphia and Pittsburg, Pa. (9) The name and address of the moderator and the secretary of the National Conference.

Now those who are in a position to give us the above information will please do so at once. You can give us the information on a postal card, and thus will cost you but one cent. The several persons who hold these offices are the ones who should furnish the information desired. We trust there may be no delay in this matter.

Holiday Books

We have secured the agency for a series of beautiful holiday books for young people, books that sell very readily and on which we can allow you the most liberal commission. We would like to have an agent in every congregation thru-out the brotherhood. Young People's Societies will find this an excellent opportunity to earn some money in an easy and legitimate way. If you are interested in this matter write us for the titles of the several books we offer you. Hundreds and thousands of these books will be sold within the next two months, and you may as well make some of these sales as any one else. Write us at once.

Minutes of Five Conferences

We have on hand the minutes of five State and District Conferences, namely, Pennsylvania, Indiana, Illiokota, Kanemorado and Michigan. The minutes of the Illiokota Conference are published in this issue. Next week the minutes of Indiana Conference will be published.

Three Thousand Dollars for Ashland College

Brother J. Allen Miller, President of the College, was present at the Pennsylvania Conference and raised $3,000 endowment for Ashland College. Brother Miller will have something to say about his trip to Pennsylvania in next week's issue. In connection with the minutes of Indiana Conference we shall have something to say of our visit to that meeting and the work of our people in that State.
